

Good Neighbor Honor Roll

Carol Rasmussen

just marked her sixth anniversary as a nutrition volunteer at the Redmond Senior Center. You will find her here every Thursday joyfully cooking up and serving the noon meal to our senior participants. She does not, however, take the rest of the week off. Carol is a good neighbor who is always willing to lend a hand where she can. As a retired nurse, she stays involved in the medical arena by volunteering at Rotocare Free Medical Clinic at Hopelink. Carol also spends one day a week at the food bank and gives her time to the Eastside Community Aide thrift shop in Totem Lake. On top of that, her Altrusa Club keeps one apartment at the YWCA Village painted and furnished for low-income tenants. Her group also cooks meals for homeless and low-income families at Issaquah Community Hall and raises money for Eastside charities by gift wrapping at Crossroads Mall during the holidays.

Annual Volunteer Arts Awards recipients with Artist, Mayor and members of the City Council

Roger Martindill of Rotary presents check to Mayor Ives.

Gerard Grohl has been a volunteer with the Redmond Police Department since 1992. He was instrumental in creating the first McGruff program and helped manage that program. When the department implemented the Disabled Parking Enforcement Program, he was the first Disabled Parking Enforcement volunteer to receive a limited commission, which authorizes volunteers to issue notices of infractions (traffic citations) for violations of the Washington State Code.

Donation – Rotary Club of Redmond

Roger Martindill, representing Rotary Club of Redmond, presented a $10,000 donation to the City to provide a firefighters' bench at Firefighters' Plaza in front of Station 11. The bench will be dedicated on October 9 during Fire Prevention Safety Week.
